RISE ELITE CONVERSATION OUTLINE

I'd like to speak with you because I'd like your support to participate in an external women's career leadership program.

I know that as a leader in this business, you value female talent, particularly in the context of building the leadership pipeline for women in our organisation. Further, you have supported me within our team and at \(insert company\).

RISE Elite is an exclusive coaching program for senior women leaders wanting to advance themselves and their careers. The program curriculum includes coaching, group networking sessions, and workshops.

It is an opportunity for me to not only get 1:1 support with a senior coach but be part of an elite cohort of other women who are striving for more and value their careers.

As a team/business, we are focused on achieving \(insert strategic initiative that your manager places value on achieving that you work on\) right now.

My contribution to our business success is demonstrated by \(insert an example of one or two business deliverables. If available, include stats like sales figures or measurable improvements\).

My opportunity to grow and add further value to the business is \(insert development goals and ideally bring back to how they can contribute to the business further\).

I am seeking your approval to enrol in this program and would appreciate your response by \(time frame – end of the week, month\). I will leave you the program information guide to review and of course, I'd be happy to talk through it further with you.

Thanks for your time and the chat. Your support is always appreciated.
